

2023 Mercurey Clos L'Evêque 1er Cru

Reviews & Tasting Notes

(89-91)

Drinking Window
2027 - 2035

From: The Lord Giveth...Burgundy 2023 (Jan 2025)

The 2023 Mercurey Clos L'Evêque 1er Cru comes from east-facing vines that stretch from the bottom to the top. This is quite perfumed on the nose with brambly red fruit, pressed rose petal and a touch of crushed stone. The palate is medium-bodied and fresh, with fine tannins and crisp acidity. A sapid finish beckons you back. This is a worthy follow-up to the 2022 and will drink well for several years.

- By Neal Martin on October 2024

2023 Mercurey La Villeranges

Reviews & Tasting Notes

(89-91)

Drinking Window
2025 - 2032

From: The Lord Giveth...Burgundy 2023 (Jan 2025)

The 2023 Mercurey La Villeranges has an attractive bouquet with orange blossom and light apricot scents, well defined with good lift. The palate is nicely balanced with a touch of sour lemon, fine weight and ample depth. A twist of orange rind decorates the finish. This is a well-crafted Mercurey Blanc that comes recommended.

- By Neal Martin on October 2024

2023 Monthélie Clos du Meix Garnier

Reviews & Tasting Notes

(88-90)

Drinking Window
2026 - 2036

From: The Lord Giveth...Burgundy 2023 (Jan 2025)

The 2023 Monthélie Clos du Meix Garnier is a monopole belonging to Domaine de Belleville. This has an attractive, finely delineated bouquet with red cherry and wild strawberry fruit, a light musk scent lingering in the background. The palate is medium-bodied with pliant tannins, neatly integrated oak (25% new), and a touch of blackcurrant and bilberry toward the finish. Give this a year in bottle and you'll have a fine, sturdy Monthélie.

- By Neal Martin on October 2024